

As a member of a local association you can be secure in the knowledge that the subscriptions paid by you are fully reinvested for the benefit of WA occupational therapists.

WA OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSOCIATION

Membership

Contact Information

Web: www.waota.com.au/

Email: info@waota.com.au

Phone: (08) 9388 1490

Facebook: WA Occupational Therapy Association

WA Occupational Therapy Association is the peak professional body in Western Australia representing the interests of WA occupational therapists.

WA OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

WA members benefit from a range of services including:

- Free monthly WA Occupational Therapy Association Newsletters, keeping you up to date with professional events
- Over 40% discount on rates for WA Professional Development courses, workshops and seminars, OT Week events and State Conferences
- PD Scholarship Program available for members to attend WAOTA professional development courses, as well as an international scholarship
- Free or discounted entry to attend Affiliated Interest Group Meetings
- 10% Discount to Developmental Occupational Therapy (DOT) membership and 10% discount to all DOT run professional development events www.dotwa.org.au
- Members only discounted Professional Indemnity Insurance, Public and Product Liability Insurance with Guild Insurance www.guildinsurance.com.au/professionals/professional-indemnity/occupational-therapists
- Free access to WA Occupational Therapy Association's Continuing Professional Development programme through the web site accepted for your Audit Practice Log by the Australian Health Practitioners Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
- Free access to ProQuest Nursing and Allied Health Journals and database via WA Occupational Therapy Association website
- Corporate rates for HBF Private Health Insurance and other products www.hbf.com.au/corporatehealth/WAOTAssociation/
- Advocacy and lobbying from your Professional Association on your behalf e.g. WorkCover rates, National Registration, liaison with OT Schools and National Registration Board, lobbying to overturn the Better Access to Mental Health budget cuts
- Website "Job Advertisements" service for Occupational Therapists and Occupational Therapy Support Staff
- Networking and marketing opportunities
- Access to Association office facilities
- WA Occupational Therapy Association website information and services
- Eligibility for prizes and awards
- Eligibility to stand for election on WA committees
- Instalment plan for membership fees
- WA Occupational Therapy Association Committee of Management working for you and the profession

WA Occupational Therapy offers the following membership categories:

Full-Time: occupational therapists working more than 20 hours per week

Part-Time: occupational therapists working 1- 19 hours per week

Non-Working: occupational therapists not currently working but who wish to retain involvement in the profession

Graduate: Newly graduated occupational therapists. With some exceptions, this applies to occupational therapists in first 12 months after graduating

Student: occupational therapy students completing the Undergraduate or Masters of Occupational Therapy course.

Occupational Therapy Support Staff

To view the full range of member benefits or to apply for membership, visit www.waota.com.au/