

Occupational Therapy Cancer Study Day

Understanding the Occupational Therapy role in the assessment and intervention of adult patients with a cancer diagnosis in acute and community care

FRIDAY 2ND AUGUST 2019

Harry Perkins Institute QEII Campus Nedlands

Presented by SCGH Senior Occupational Therapists

Register before Friday 28th June

Cost $220 incl GST

Participants will develop knowledge of

- The impact of symptoms & side effects of cancer plus impact of treatment on function, cognition, pressure & falls risk
- The psychosocial impact of cancer on the patient & family
- The deteriorating patient
- Communication about end of life care
- Discharge planning / Community resources

BONUS

Presentation by Palliative Care Consultant, Dr David Dunwoodie

Register by contacting Rebecca Grant on phone: 6457 2855
 or email SCGH.OTCancerStudyDay@health.wa.gov.au